Section 18 of 21

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

Buttercups Tearooms is already compliant with all standards and insurances required for running the tearoom, including those related to health and safety, fire regulations, food and hygiene, insurances and music licensing. In addition: Both the personal licence holder and the supervisors are nominated to cover all shifts at the premises. All staff will be trained to implement additional policies such as challenge 25, dealing with customers under the influence of alcohol and emergency situations. Alcohol will be stored away from the general public and in view of supervisors and staff members.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

No person will be allowed to leave the premises with glass bottles and all alcohol purchased should be consumed on the premises. The exit to the cafe is located in front of the food preparation area where both the personal licence holder and the designated supervisors are normally situated. The challenge 25 policy will be rigorously implemented and alcohol will not be served to anyone who does not provide the correct hologrammed photographic evidence, neither will it be served to any person who is perceived to be buying alcohol for person of 16 or 17 (beer, wine or cider) if it is suspected that the adult concerned is not a responsible parent of the same. No person who is perceived to be drunk on entering the premises will be served and it will not be allowed for anyone to be drunk and disorderly on the premises. There is one toilet available to the general public which is located within sight of most of the staff, anyone perceived to be taking drugs within the cafe, including the toilet area will be reported to the police.

c) Public safety

The premises are fully insured with both employers and public liability insurances in place. Regular checks are in place for fire equipment, electrical equipment and mains electrical. Emergency exits are well labeled and staff are trained to evacuate people to muster points. Up to date records are maintained for health and safety and food control. Smoking areas are not available due to the nature of the premises. Rubbish including glass is disposed of within an external location not normally accessed by any member of the public. Lighting of the premises is ample and there are no hazardous areas of the cafe aside of one small step from the back room to the front room which is highlighted and signed.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

The cafe does not have any opening windows to allow noise from the premises. During the summer it may be necessary to have the door of the premises open, however it is assumed that with the proposed hours of opening, the sound level of the music and the requirement of anyone purchasing alcohol to also be served with a meal, that noise levels will be kept to a minimum. No disposal of glass would be allowed after 21:00 at night. People will always be asked to and signage will be provided to ask everyone to respect the any neighbours by leaving quietly.

e) The protection of children from harm

Buttercups is a family orientated business and it will almost certainly have children accompanying adults to enjoy a meal within the business. Children will be protected at all times. We will not tolerate anyone entering the premises who appears to be drunk. We will not allow any adult, parent or not, to consume alcohol if they appear to be drunk and they will under no circumstances be able to give any child alcohol. Challenge 25 will prevent any underage person trying to purchase alcohol.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.

  - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
  - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
  - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
    - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
    - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
    - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
    - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
