For example the type of premises, its general situation and layout and any other information which could be relevant to the licensing objectives. Where your application includes off-supplies of alcohol and you intend to provide a place for consumption of these off- supplies you must include a description of where the place will be and its proximity to the premises.

The premises were formerly operated as Breakers Café. Following the café's administration, Kerbside Kitchen has taken over the lease and will be running the kitchen. In collaboration with them, we intend to establish a micro-bar within the premises, enhancing the dining experience for their customers while also attracting new patrons.

Our micro-bar will be situated at the front of the premises, functioning primarily as a brewery taproom. We will offer a carefully curated selection of our own brewery's beers, designed to complement the food available from the kitchen. In addition to our range of ales, we will provide a full selection of beverages to accommodate all customer preferences.

The primary function of the bar will be to serve drinks for on-site consumption, paired with the food offerings from Kerbside Kitchen. We also seek to include off-sales of alcohol in sealed containers, aligning with the kitchen's takeaway service.

The previous business, Breakers Café, held a kerbside licence that permitted a small number of outdoor tables. As part of this application, we would like to include these within our licensed area, ensuring a seamless transition from the previous use while maintaining compliance with all licensing objectives.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, state the number expected to attend

Section 18 of 21

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

Crime & Disorder Prevention – Enforcing a Challenge 25 policy, providing staff training on responsible alcohol service, operating CCTV surveillance, and maintaining a zero-tolerance approach to drugs and anti-social behaviour.
Public Safety – Adhering to health and safety regulations, conducting regular risk assessments, training staff in emergency procedures, and ensuring appropriate crowd management and safe glassware use.
Prevention of Public Nuisance – Managing noise levels, implementing a dispersal policy, monitoring outdoor seating, and displaying signage to encourage customer responsibility.
Protection of Children from Harm – Strictly enforcing age verification policies, training staff to prevent underage sales, restricting unaccompanied minors, and ensuring alcohol promotions remain socially responsible.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

A Challenge 25 policy will be strictly enforced, requiring valid ID (passport, driving licence, PASS-accredited card) for any customer appearing under 25.
All staff involved in alcohol sales will undergo comprehensive training on responsible alcohol service, including how to refuse service to intoxicated individuals.
A zero-tolerance policy on drug use, anti-social behaviour, and aggressive conduct will be enforced, with staff trained to manage situations and report concerns to authorities when necessary.
The premises will liaise with the local police and licensing authorities, reporting any issues promptly.

c) Public safety

The premises will be designed and maintained in accordance with health and safety regulations, including appropriate fire safety measures, emergency exits, and first aid provisions.
Capacity limits will be observed to avoid overcrowding, ensuring a safe and comfortable environment for all customers and staff.
Regular risk assessments will be conducted to address any hazards, with a focus on preventing slips, trips, and falls.
All staff will be trained in emergency procedures, including fire evacuation and dealing with medical incidents.
Drinks will be served in appropriate glassware, with the option for polycarbonate alternatives where necessary to prevent accidents or misuse.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Noise levels will be managed carefully, with any music or customer noise kept at a reasonable level to avoid disturbance to neighbouring properties.
A clear dispersal policy will be in place to encourage customers to leave quietly, minimising disruption to the local area.
Any outdoor seating area will be monitored to ensure customers behave responsibly and do not cause nuisance to passersby or local residents.
Deliveries and waste collections will be scheduled at appropriate times to avoid disruption.
Signage will be displayed requesting customers to respect the local community and keep noise to a minimum when leaving the premises.

e) The protection of children from harm

The Challenge 25 policy will ensure that no alcohol is sold to minors, with robust age verification checks in place.
All staff involved in alcohol sales will receive training on underage sales prevention and how to identify and refuse sales to underage individuals or proxy purchasers.

No children will be permitted on the premises unless accompanied by a responsible adult.

Where necessary, specific hours or areas may be restricted for those under 18 to prevent exposure to inappropriate behaviour.

Any promotions or advertising of alcohol will be socially responsible and not targeted towards children.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
  - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
  - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
  - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
    - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
    - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
    - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
    - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
